On 12/8/71, [] of the Bureau advised that the Director had given his approval for the publication of the artist's sketch in the publication "PARACHUTIST" as requested in Seattle teletype.

b6
b7C

He advised that a sketch prepared by the artist of the UNSUB both with and without the glasses, would be furnished to the San Francisco Office for publication as above mentioned.

[] also asked if the entire course of the flight had been searched. He was advised that the pertinent part of the State of Washington as well as all of Oregon, and Nevada, had been checked but apparently the area in California had not yet been searched due to the fact that the reconnaissance plane had been unable to fly the course due to bad weather.

b7C

[] advised that Sacramento should be immediately contacted and requested to do a thorough search of the area, the same to be handled within the bounds of good judgment.

b6
b7C

[] also had other questions, one of the ones he asked was, -

b6
b7C

Did the UNSUB use the lavatory he [] wondered whether he might have taken the money in there to check it.

b6
b7C

He was advised he used the lavatory before the passengers left the plane because one of the passengers saw him. He was further advised that apparently he did not check the money in the lavatory because the stewardess observed him examining the money.

[] also advised that the Bureau was preparing for field-wide distribution, a wanted flyer which would contain both sketches of this UNSUB, the one with glasses and one without. Exactly when this would be sent out, he did not say.

Specimens received 12/6/71 from New York

- Q7 Envelope postmarked "PORTLAND OREG. P O NOV 3 - '71," bearing hand printed address "Editor, For Men Only 625 Madison Av. New York, NY 10022." and return address [redacted]

Result of examination:

Q5 through Q12 were not identified in the Anonymous Letter File. Appropriate copies of these specimens have been added to this file for future reference.

No watermarks, indented writing or other features were found on Q5 through Q12 which would be of value in determining the source of these specimens. It is noted that indented impressions of the Q5 address appear on Q6.

No connection could be established between Q5 through Q12 and the specimens previously submitted by Las Vegas, designated Q1 and Q2, and by Philadelphia, designated Q3 and Q4. It is noted in this regard that the hand printing on Q5 is distorted and it could not be determined whether it was prepared by the person(s) who prepared the distorted hand printing on Q1.

The submitted evidence was photographed and will be returned separately.

[redacted] advised that on the night of November 24, 1971 he observed an airplane flying near [redacted] Airfield. He advised that the time of the sighting was between 7:30 and 8 p.m. because [redacted] and they had just finished watching "Truth or Consequences" on t.v. which is on from 7:00 until 7:30 p.m.

He advised that the aircraft was flying at about treetop level and was flying from the northeast direction toward the southwest. He stated that the plane made a turn behind [redacted] Airfield and that upon completion of the turn departed the area flying back toward the northeast. He stated that upon making the turn the airplane turned on its landing lights but that it did not land. [redacted] stated that planes often fly low over that particular area due to the close proximity of the airfields located [redacted] but that he thought this was peculiar since the plane put on its landing lights but apparently did not land.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT, aka Dan Cooper;
NORTHWEST AIRLINES FLIGHT #305,
PORTLAND TO SEATTLE,
11/24/71
CRIME ABOARD AIRCRAFT - HIJACKING; EXTORTION

On November 24, 1971, an unknown man using the name Dan Cooper, boarded Northwest Airlines Flight #305, at Portland International Airport, Portland, Oregon, en-route Seattle, Washington.

As the plane was taxiing down the runway, Stewardess [] occupied the seat reserved for the stewardesses on the right side of the plane and behind the last row of passenger seats. The unknown subject, who occupied the center seat in the last row of three seats, turned and handed her an envelope which she did not open for a few minutes until he glanced at her several times. She then opened the envelope and read the enclosed note which said: "Miss - I have a bomb here and I would like you to sit by me." At this point Stewardess [] came toward the rear of the plane and [] handed [] the note. [] then called the pilot on the intercom.

[] on the flight, later advised that according to notes he made during the incident, the emergency signal from Stewardess [] was received on the intercom at 3:59 PM.

b6

Stewardess [] then sat next to the hijacker who opened a black attache case and showed her what he said was a bomb. She described the contents of the attache case as a bundle of red sticks, which she believed was dynamite. The bundle consisted of six or eight red colored sticks approximately six to eight inches long with no writing on the outside. The hijacker was holding in his hand a wire which led to the bundle of sticks and indicated that he could detonate the bomb by touching the wire to a contact. Also in the attache case was a cylindrical shaped battery about eight inches long.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT, aka Dan Cooper

At first the hijacker asked for $200,000 and two parachutes.

After [] left her stewardess seat and gave the note to [] sat beside the hijacker who, after showing the contents of the attache case, told her to "take this down." From her purse she obtained a pen and note pad and he dictated the following message:

b6

"I want $200,000 by 5:00 PM in cash. Put it in a knapsack. I want two back parachutes and two front parachutes. When we land, I want a fuel truck ready to refuel. No funny stuff, or I'll do the job."

At the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport (Sea-Tac) in answer to his demands, the hijacker was provided with the four parachutes and $200,000 in 20 dollar bills in a canvas bank bag. When the plane landed at Seattle at 5:45 PM (PST) he instructed Stewardess [] to go after the money which she did. He opened the bag; inspected the money and then told them that the passengers as well as the two other stewardesses could leave the plane. They did deplane. The remaining crew members were the three male members of the flight crew as well as Stewardess []

b6
b7C

[] then made several trips out of the plane to obtain the parachutes which she brought to the subject.

b6
b7C

[] said she then asked the hijacker what his instructions were regarding the destination of the flight. Up to that point he had refused to tell her except to say that they were not going to Havanna. She then obtained a piece of paper and the hijacker gave her the following instructions:

b6
b7C

"Going to Mexico City - or any place in Mexico - non-stop - gear down - flaps down - don't go over 10,000 feet altitude - all cabin lights out - do not again land in the States for fuel or anyother reason - no one behind the first class section."

It is noted that the plane involved was a Boeing 727, a tri-jet with stairs under the rear of the aircraft which are lowered for enplaning and deplaning passengers.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT, aka Dan Cooper

At first the hijacker wanted the plane to take off with the stairs down but after he was advised this would be impossible, he agreed to having the steps raised with the comment that they could be lowered after they became airborne.

It was further agreed that the plane could be flown to Portland, Oregon, south to Red Bluff, California and then east to Reno, Nevada, where it would stop for refueling.

The plane departed Sea-Tac with the three crew members in the cabin and [redacted] in the rear with the hijacker. Within minutes after take off at 7:36 PM, the hijacker had the stewardess show him how to lower the steps and he then ordered her to go to the first class section which she did, and she then continued on to the cabin.

At 8:05 PM the captain was in touch with the hijacker by the intercom. This was the last communication he had with the hijacker. Just prior to this communication, the captain had a signal indicating that the stairs had been lowered. At 8:12 PM, the captain experienced "oscillation" in the plane and thought perhaps the hijacker had departed the plane.

Air Force fighter planes were escorting the craft but because the 727 was flying at 170 knots, the fighter jets were too fast. Further, the weather was overcast and visibility extremely low.

When the plane arrived at Reno, the hijacker was gone and two of the parachutes were still in the airplane. The attache case also was not in the plane and has not been found.

Extensive search of the southwestern part of Washington State, which was indicated by the 8:12 PM "oscillation" experienced by the crew, was conducted through the aid of fixed-wing aircraft, helicopters, automobiles and on foot. Results to date have been negative.

Aerial searches have been and are being made of the flight path to Reno, Nevada, with negative results.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT, aka Dan Cooper

An artist's conception was prepared by the Federal Bureau of Investigation based on personal interviews with the three stewardesses who had been on Flight #305 as well as on the basis of information furnished by passengers who had viewed the hijacker.

Extensive publication has been made of the artist's conception as well as the basic information concerning the hijacking. In addition, a booklet listing the serial numbers of the 10,000 twenty dollar bills which made up the ransom, has been published and widely disseminated.

The names of numerous look-alikes have been offered as suspects and extensive investigation throughout the country is presently being conducted to identify the hijacker.

The following is a composite description based on the information furnished by all witnesses:

BOB MATHESON called from the Bureau. He had the following to say:

1. The Director approved publicity of the article and artist's conception in the parachute magazine in response to our teletype 12/7/71.

2. He referred to a teletype of 12/ /71 from Portland in regard to a person who was [redacted] [redacted] He said it seemed to him that Portland had set out a lot of unnecessary investigation since the purpose of the thing was simply to get a photo of the suspect and have it shown to witnesses rather than getting all the background.

3. He wanted to know if we had considered having a Northwest plane fly Agents over the exact course at night so that we could look down and see just what the situation was when the "bump" occurred at 8:10 or 8:12 PM. I told him we had considered this and also had considered hiring someone to parachute from the plane but the problem was that there was no way of duplicating the conditions which existed at the time. He requested we put some type of language in a teletype about this.

On 12/9/71 I called SAC MATTSON in Portland, SAC CAMPBELL in Las Vegas and ASAC MORLEY in San Francisco.

I talked to all of them about publishing the ransom list in a newspaper of wide circulation in their areas. All of them said they believed they could have this done, would do it and let us know.

SUBJECT: NORJACK

I called the Bureau on 12/9/71 and talked to SA HENRY SHUTZ. I told him it was our feeling here that we should get cooperative newspapers to publish this bait list and to generate as much enthusiasm as we could among the public and perhaps somebody would come up with one of these $20 bills. I wondered if the Bureau had given consideration to instructing all SAC's to have this done.

He called back and said they were not going to do this because first, they did not think most newspapers would publish it; second, they did not want all SAC's to have the feeling that they had to get it published, which might cause a great deal of difficulty around the field. He said he thought their instructions were sufficient, that if we could arrange to get it published in our division, and if we wanted to call other offices on a selected basis, and see if the SAC's could work out some arrangement to publish it, he would leave that up to us. He definitely stated that we had authority to get the list published if we so desired.

SUBJECT: NORJAK

On 12/10/71 I called SA HENRY SHUTZ at the Bureau.

I told him we were contacting a number of daily newspapers, urging them as a public service to publish serial numbers of the bills taken in this case. I suggested that as an economic matter it might be more desirable to have the Bureau prepare a mat containing these numbers, which could be distributed to newspapers and used by them as a means of printing and thereby, hopefully, be able to encourage more to print the list.

I talked to SA BLAND about this matter and he advised that it would have to be initiated by the investigative division.

SA SHUTZ called me back on 12/10/71 and advised they were exploring the possible costs of this matter and would let us know Monday.

In the meantime I had talked to [redacted] of the SEATTLE P-I, and to [redacted] of the SEATTLE TIMES, inquiring of them if as a public service would they be interested in publishing the list. Both advised it would be considered and they would let us know.

Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECT;
Northwest Airlines Flight #305,
Portland to Seattle,
November 24, 1971
CAA - HIJACKING; EXTORTION

Dear Sir:

Northwest Airlines Flight #305 enroute from Portland, Oregon, to Seattle, on November 24, 1971, was hijacked and a ransom demand made of Northwest Airlines for $200,000.

The hijacker instructed that the $200,000 as well as four parachutes be ready by 5:00 PM, on November 24, 1971.

Northwest Airlines then arranged with Seattle-First National Bank, Seattle, to make the $200,000 available and the same was microfilmed for later evidentiary use. The film is now in possession of the Seattle Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Very truly yours,

For record purposes, I called SAC WHALEY at Albuquerque on 11/29/71, and told him I understood that there was a research project at Hobbsman Air Force Base in New Mexico dealing with the effect on a body of high altitude parachuting and the effect of low temperatures on a body in case a jump was made. I asked him to see if he could contact the person responsible for the survey to give us some notions about what effect this would have on the man making this jump.

I told him that the weather was clear to 1500 feet, broken clouds to 5,000, solid above, and that the jump was possibly made around 7,000 to 10,000 ft. at a time when the "total average temperature" was minus 7 degrees.

Around Lake Merwin in the northern most part of the search area there is a ridge line which averages 1700 feet running in an east to westerly direction with dense timber, extremely heavy undergrowth and few clearings. Proceeding north and east of this location into Cowlitz County the terrain becomes more timbered with heavy growth of underbrush along the flight path

MEMO TO EARL MILNES

Dear Earl:

After I called you this morning, I told [] I would call back in the afternoon but I was [] and didn't get back as early as I had figured.

b6
b7C

With current events as they are, I know that you have your hands full and I don't intend to take but just a moment of your time.

[] were discussing the extensive list which had to be printed and sent out with regard to the currency which was turned over to the hijacker and the cost (to the taxpayers) which was run up in getting the booklet printed and mailed all over the country. This may or may not be a matter of particular interest to you, [] came up with an idea which might help recover some of those printing costs and, with any luck, might even turn up some of the items which are listed.

That is for the FBI to get a news release out to every daily newspaper (thru AP or UPI wire) that copies of the list of bills, in booklet form, are available to anyone interested at a cost of $1.00 apiece. Not that she nor I subscribe to the "hero-worship" concept we've been reading about, but we believe there'd be hundreds who would like to get ahold of a copy...either for curiosity's sake or as a souvenir item. In addition to making the books available for a buck apiece, the news item could also point out that if an actual bill was turned up, J. Edgar Hoover would buy it back for $21.00, thereby returning their investment on the book.

I know it may sound weird but, on the other hand, I can see how it also might even turn up some real good leads.

Dear

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to me and forwarding your suggestion concerning the distribution of the list of currency paid in the hijacking of Northwest Airlines Flight 305.

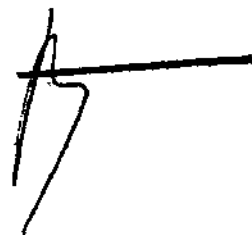

While undoubtedly there is considerable merit to your suggestion, we have not been in the practice of selling the material we distribute. We are trying to get this published through the news media. Whether we succeed or not will be determined in time.

I recognize that the Bonneville Power Administration is being reimbursed by the FBI for the expenses incurred, but nonetheless I want you to know that we are most appreciative of your thoughtfulness in making the use of the machine available to us.
